

kids' advocacy coalition

After-School Program

What is KAC?

Kids' Advocacy Coalition (KAC) in Tifton is a non-profit agency offering safe, affordable, high quality care for children of parents who are working or are in school or job training.

Where and when is this care offered?

The KAC After-School Program is held at Annie Belle Clark, G. O. Bailey, J. T. Reddick, Len Lastinger, Northside, Charles Spencer, Matt Wilson, and Omega. (Students from 8th Street and Northeast Campus will be transported to Annie Belle Clark) The program begins as soon as students are dismissed from school and runs until 6:00 on all full day school days. KAC is unable to offer after school care on early release days and holidays.

How much does this program cost?

The cost per week is $50 for students who are picked up by 4:45 and $60 for students who remain after 4:45. KAC offers a discount for each additional child in the same family. A $40 registration fee per child is required.

What activities will my child participate?

Students are given an opportunity to complete homework. Help is given when requested. Opportunity is provided for students to choose to participate in outdoor activities, games, toys, arts and crafts, reading, selected videos, drama, and just visiting with friends. In the after school program, children have the opportunity to try out problem solving skills and to further develop socialization skills. Above all, the after school program is a place to have fun and relax after a hard day's work at school!!

How do I obtain more information?

The KAC office is located at 1815 Chestnut Ave located behind Northside Elementary. Our office hours are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. to provide you with any additional information concerning our after-school program. Please feel free to contact us at 229.382.9919 and you may also visit our website at www.kactift.org.

A United Way Agency